

April 3, 2012

Bachelor of Fine Art and Bachelor of Art
Spring Senior Portfolio Exhibition

The Crisp-Ellert Art Museum and Flagler College look forward to another celebration of student artwork and music during the Spring Bachelor of Art and Bachelor of Fine Arts Senior Portfolio Exhibition. The exhibition will include works by a talented group of graduating seniors in a variety of mediums. An opening reception will be held on Thursday, April 19 from 5-9 pm and continues through Friday, April 20 from 10 am until 4 pm.

Included in the exhibition are works by the following five students graduating with the distinguished Bachelor of Fine Arts degree: paintings by Leigh Abear, mixed media drawings by Jeremy Eskin, paintings by Jackson Holbrook, paintings and videos by Denise Liberi, works on paper and installation by Courtney Lowers, a video installation by Erica Peters, and textile based works by Jenna Stanish.

Also on view will be paintings, photographs, sculpture and other mixed media works by the Bachelor of Art candidates: Caitlin Byerly, Callie Cheney, Kaitlyn Deitz, Kathleen Dougherty, Felicia Guerriero, Debra Hammond, Rebecca Hoadley, Andrea Landers, Kate Livesey, Derek O'Brien, Amber Pickett, Tara Stephens, John Taylor, Josh Weaver and Kate Willink

For more information, please contact the museum at (904) 826-8530 or by e-mail at crispellert@flagler.edu. For information on future exhibitions and events at the museum, please visit our website at www.flagler.edu/crispellert, and for Flagler College news and events visit www.flagler.edu/our-community.