

For Immediate Release

March 18, 2013

Please join us on Friday, March 29 at 7pm for a one-night exhibition of video art at the Crisp-Ellert Art Museum. Co-organized by Ryan Tempro, Bachelor of Fine Art and Graphic Design student and Patrick Moser, Chair of the Department of Art and Design, Capture will include selected video-based works by artists from throughout the United States and abroad, including Flagler College's own Maya de Ceano-Vivas. Tempro will introduce the videos, which will be shown in two parts, and will briefly discuss the genesis of this project.

Artists included: Benjamin Bellas - Chicago, IL; Ellen Wetmore - Madison, WI; Erin Labonte - Manitowoc, WI; Maya de Ceano-Vivas - St. Augustine, FL; Diego Pineros Garcia - Bogota, Colombia; Kris Pierce - Fort Worth, TX; Philippos Kappa - Athens, Greece; Rob Fatal and Jessica Leimone - Oakland, CA; Jessica Tankersley - Tulsa, OK; Michael lauch - Durham, NC; Vika Adutova - Brooklyn, NY; Maura Jasper - St. Muncie, IN; Minah Baek - Brooklyn, NY
