B.F.A. & B.A. Student Portfolio Exhibition Spring 2018

April 26 - 28, 2018

The Crisp-Ellert Art Museum and Flagler College are pleased to present our spring exhibition of work by our graduating B.F.A. and B.A. candidates from the Department of Art and Design. The exhibition will open with a reception on Thursday, April 26 from 5 until 8pm. It will be on view on Friday, April 27 from 10am until 4pm and on Saturday, April 28 from 11am until 1pm. This event is free and open to the public.

This semester the Bachelor of Fine Arts Portfolio course has been led by Associate Professor Leslie Robison. Artist Jenn Gulgren's paintings reveal unappeased figures in an overly saturated environment. Conrad Kane's ceramic and photography works are a commentary on society's perception of gender and sexuality. Hannah Laasko layers multiple mediums such as paint and photography to explore themes of memory and childhood. Marina Rossi utilizes paper, watercolor, pencil and ink to create intricate and organic sculptures in order to reflect on the biological.

Under the guidance of Associate Professor Laura Mongiovi, the Bachelor of Arts exhibition will include painting, drawing, printmaking, sculpture, mixed media, and installation by BA candidates Christian Ard, Olivia Clemons, Lauren Curtis, Cassie Derickson, Kobe Elixson, Annie Kilic, Noah Mackenzie, Christian Ouellette, Jessie Reulbach, Kimmy Schander, and Emily Vogel.
