PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Flagler Family,

Here at Flagler, we are not simply educating students, we are mentoring visionary thinkers, inspiring fearless leaders, and driving innovation in fields that will define the next century. Our gaze is future-oriented for a reason, and it has been the defining feature of our efforts to push Flagler Forward.

This past year, we laid important groundwork for that future. We formalized a global partnership with Spain's University of Oviedo to expand access to international learning; introduced new programming with the launch of our Biology Major and the opening of a Modular Science Laboratory; and officially completed the three-year total restoration of our campus centerpiece and National Historic Landmark, Ponce Hall, a transformative renewal that will honor the former hotel's historic legacy while also propelling it into a new era of comfort and modernity.

These accomplishments reflect the leading role our donors continue to play in our mission to deliver a rigorous, forward-thinking education. As one of those donors, the commitment we enjoy from you provides more than just support, it dynamically shapes the people, places, and programs that move us forward.

Thank you for helping us close out another pivotal year of Flagler excellence. Our successes reflect the power of shared purpose, and I hope you recognize the significance of what we have accomplished together so far.

Please note that the endowment figures included in this year's Annual Report reflect the 2023–24 fiscal year, as updated numbers for 2024–25 are temporarily delayed due to a necessary ERP system transition. We appreciate your understanding and will share the latest financials as soon as they are available.

As we enter the final months of the Flagler Forward campaign, your continued partnership will ensure its lasting impact for generations of Saints to come.

Sincerely,

John A. Delaney

President of Flagler College

Thank You, Donors!

The Honor Roll of Donors recognizes thousands of individuals who donate to a variety of funds and activities across Flagler College. To celebrate those who have given this past year, this Honor Roll represents cumulative giving totals for the twelve-month period from July 1, 2024, through June 30, 2025, for gifts of $250 or more.

Being named the Kenan Distinguished Professor for Excellence in Teaching is too profound an honor to be brief. I am grateful that I have been so fortunate to be the beneficiary of this incredibly generous and invaluable support. It has truly empowered me to look inward deeply and discover what it was that I still loved so much about teaching. Finding opportunities and ways to connect with my colleagues and workshop teaching strategies has meant a great deal to me. Having the resources to bring in nationally recognized authors, who are leading the field and leading the way in pedagogy, has also been truly remarkable.”

Introducing Little Saints and GEMS

LITTLE SAINTS allows Flagler alumni to honor their child (12 or younger) with a donation and receive a fun-filled, family-friendly welcome package. This new program fosters early connections to Flagler College, promoting lasting memories, pride, and a future legacy of support.

Learn More Here

FLAGLER GEMS (Giving Every Month) is a new, monthly giving program that lets donors support Flagler College, starting at just $10 a month. Choose a giving level—Legacy Circle ($10), Crimson Society ($50), or President's Society GEM ($84)—and enjoy perks like event invitations, exclusive Flagler gear, recognition, and campus activity tickets. All new members also receive official Flagler socks as a thank-you. It's an easy, rewarding way to stay connected and make a lasting impact.

Business Week - Lion's Cage Competition

Each year, donor support enables the College to host Business Week, which culminates with a Shark Tank-style competition called Lion's Cage. This year's winners—juniors Elizabeth Rieke, Lauren Gallagher, Bridget Young, and senior Asher Phillips—developed the Park de Leon app to address campus parking challenges and received seed funding for their innovative solution. Pictured here with the students is Business Advisory Board Immediate Past Chair Don Fox.

MESSAGE from a SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT

Receiving a scholarship towards my FlagSHIP trip was such a blessing. It allowed me to travel to Greece and experience a culture I had always wanted to see, as well as create connections with people I never would have met otherwise. Growing up, my family and I never vacationed or travelled anywhere outside of Florida, so I had no idea what was out there. This trip made me realize that the world is so vast, and worth exploring. Being completely immersed in the Greek culture was incredible because I got to experience so many things that were so new to me. My experiences were truly once-in-a-lifetime and so valuable to my perspective of the world!”

FlagSHIP Scholarship

ENDOWED AND ANNUAL FUNDS

Endowments are a powerful investment in the future of our students and faculty. Not only do endowed scholarships help students offset the full cost of their education, but faculty initiatives, like endowed professorships, help recruit and retain the best and brightest academic thought leaders. Endowments can also enhance the operation of college centers and programs. When you invest in Flagler College, you propel our campus community into the forefront of innovative thinking. As we move Flagler Forward, endowed funds offer stability, flexibility and confidence in the future of the College, while driving improvements in the quality of teaching and student life. Creating an endowed fund is a meaningful way to support the College in perpetuity and provide members of the Flagler family with the lasting gift of a transformational education.
