PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Flagler Family,

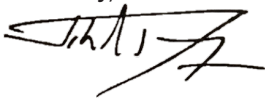

The close of this fiscal year marked an extraordinary milestone for our College with the successful conclusion of Flagler Forward: The Campaign for Flagler College. Together, we exceeded our most ambitious goals, and your generosity has strengthened the people, places, and programs that will shape generations of Saints to come.

The impact of your giving is already evident across campus, including at the Pollard Tennis Center. There, donor support gave our men's tennis team a first-class facility to train and prepare for the historic season that culminated in the program's first NCAA national title. We also fully funded and endowed seven of our eight Alumni Chapter Scholarships, a remarkable achievement that reflects the generosity and enduring commitment of our alumni community. In addition, we welcomed Erin Brockovich as our Fall History Maker in Residence, giving students the opportunity to engage with one of the nation's leading advocates for environmental justice and civic leadership.

This year's Annual Report and Honor Roll recognizes the donors who made these accomplishments possible and provides a concise look at the past fiscal year. To fully capture the impact of Flagler Forward, we will present the campaign's complete story in a dedicated October publication. I look forward to sharing its transformative outcomes and the lasting difference your support continues to make.

As we celebrate all we have accomplished together, we are even more excited for what lies ahead. Thank you for investing in our students' success; your support is just the beginning of what will empower every Saint to learn, lead, and thrive with purpose.

Sincerely,

John A. Delaney

President of Flagler College

Thank You, Donors!

The Honor Roll of Donors recognizes thousands of individuals who donate to a variety of funds and activities across Flagler College. To celebrate those who have given this past year, this Honor Roll represents cumulative giving totals for the twelve-month period from July 1, 2025, through June 30, 2026, for gifts of $250 or more.

MEN'S TENNIS NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Flagler's Men's Tennis team achieved a historic milestone by capturing the program's first NCAA Division II National Championship and third national title overall with a close 4-3 victory over previously undefeated and top-seeded Barry University.

The sixth-seeded Saints finished the season 24-4, defeated the nation's No. 1 and No. 2 ranked teams on back-to-back days, and ended a 23-match losing streak against Barry that dated back to 1994. The championship was secured by Aly El Rafie's dramatic three-set victory in the deciding match, while key performances from Aniss Rafiq, Simon Malis, and the doubles teams helped power the Saints to the title. Under the leadership of head coach Jonas Piibor, the team's resilience, hard work, and determination culminated in a landmark achievement that followed last year's national runner-up finish and established one of the greatest seasons in program history.

The endowed Craig and Audrey Thorn Distinguished Professorship of Religion allows me the opportunity to support student research projects, raise student participation in study abroad programs, and create opportunities to share my work in public and professional forums. By learning the art and craft of research, editorial input, and publication, student names have appeared in the footnotes of peer-reviewed articles and in numerous academic publications. I am continually humbled by the fact that Craig and Audrey Thorn so trusted Flagler College that they created an endowment without even knowing how their hard-earned inheritance would be utilized. I am proud to be the first recipient of their generosity and strive to foster the liberal arts tradition in their memory.”

BUSINESS WEEK - LION'S CAGE

Each year, donor support enables the College to host Business Week, which culminates with a Shark Tank-style competition called Lion's Cage. This year's winners—seniors Jesse Van Krimpen and Reiss Skeen—developed FocusTap, an education technology platform designed to help institutions measure and encourage participation in the classroom. This year, the winning team received a $5,000 grand prize sponsored by Stellar to be used as seed funding for their innovative solution. Pictured here with the students is Business Advisory Board Immediate Past Chair Don Fox and former Lion's Cage winner and event emcee Jacob Goldman '25.

During the College's Flagler Forward fundraising campaign, seven endowed Alumni Chapter Scholarships were established. Students from the Tallahassee, Gold Coast, Suncoast, First Coast, Atlanta, and Greater NY Metro areas who are awarded these scholarships can anticipate receiving them for the 2027–28 academic year.

“Scholarships help attract talented students and ensure that deserving individuals have access to the exceptional educational experience that Flagler provides,” said Marisa Meadows '97. “Giving to initiatives like the Chapter Scholarships is an investment in future generations of Flagler students, as well as in the continued strength of the College and its alumni community.”

ENDOWED AND ANNUAL FUNDS

Endowments are a powerful investment in the future of our students, faculty and College. Endowed scholarships help offset the cost of education, while endowed professorships attract and retain exceptional faculty and academic leaders. Endowed funds also strengthen college centers and programs, providing the stability and flexibility to advance innovation, teaching and student life. As we move Flagler Forward, creating an endowed fund is a meaningful way to support the College in perpetuity and provide future generations of the Flagler family with a transformational education.

As we complete a vital ERP transition, audited financial information for Fiscal Year 2025–26 is not yet available. For this reason, all endowed information presented in this section reflects Fiscal Year 2024–25.
