Things to Do In Saint Augustine

Flagler College students have the amazing privilege of living in the heart of historical downtown St. Augustine. There is a long list of activities for you to participate in, many of which offer discounts to Flagler College students.

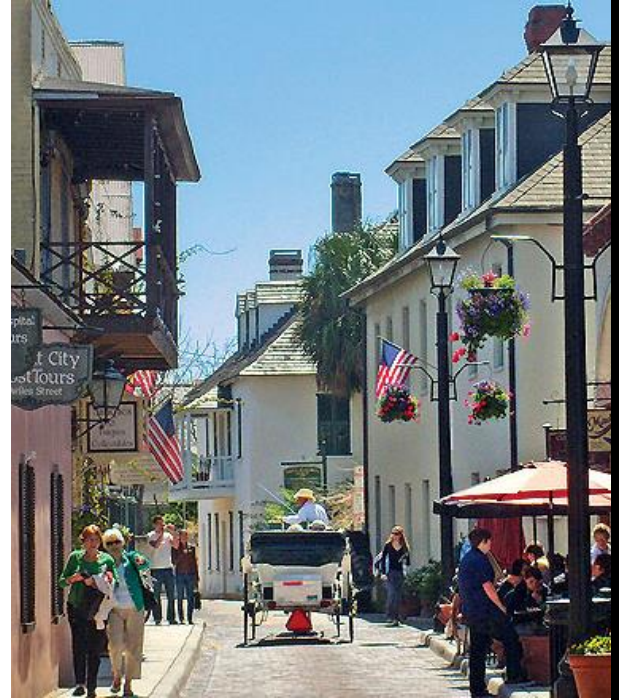

While there are too many exciting things happening in our city to count, we've provided you with a list of some the International Center staff's top picks for things to do in St. Augustine and nearby St. Augustine Beach.

- Lightner Museum – This museum, located across from Flagler College was once the Hotel Alcazar. Now, the Lightner Museum houses hundreds of historical items, primarily from the Victorian era.

- Castillo de San Marco – Once a fort used by the Spanish to protect the city, this U.S. national monument sits along the Matanzas Bay. It is a great place to learn more about St. Augustine’s historical significance.
- St. Augustine Alligator Farm – A short drive from Flagler’s campus, the St. Augustine Alligator Farm is a zoological center that has at least one crocodilian from every species alive in the world. Don’t worry, they don’t bite!
- Old City – As the oldest city in the United States, St. Augustine offers newcomers several “oldest” attractions – many of which are located in St. Augustine’s old city district. Our favorite spot is the Oldest House in the United States, located on St. Francis Street.
- Colonial Quarter– Become completely immersed in St. Augustine’s Colonial Quarter. There are many exciting eateries, shops, and cultural activities in this section of our city.

- Shopping on St. George Street – While it isn’t the best place to buy your bedsheets and toothpaste, St. George Street has many art galleries, local boutiques, and St. Augustine essentials. We recommend stopping by Hyppo Gourmet Ice Pops!
- St. Augustine Lighthouse & Museum – Just cross the Bridge of Lions on Anastasia Island, there is the St. Augustine Lighthouse & Museum. We encourage you to walk to the top for a complete 360 (degree) view of the entire city.
- Anastasia State Park – A certified park by the state of Florida, Anastasia Park is a great place for you to experience the natural wildlife in St. Augustine. The park encourages visitors to camp, hike, canoe, and kayak!

- Saint Augustine Amphitheatre – A favorite spot for St. Augustine locals, the Amphitheatre is a multi-faceted venue that features musical concerts, plays, and stand-up comedians throughout the year. Each week the theatre holds a Farmer’s Market, which offers goods like local, fresh produce, handmade arts and crafts, baked goods, plants directly off the farm, freshly-caught seafood, cheeses and so much more.
- Anastasia Beach – What’s one of the best parts of living in the “Sunshine State”? Beaches! Anastasia Beach is where many locals go surfing or have a relaxing day in the sun and sand. Be sure to bring your favorite bathing suit.
- Honorable Mention – No list can be complete without mentioning the United States’ theme park capital...Orlando. In just a short two-hour car drive, students can find themselves posing with Mickey and Minnie Mouse at Disney World or visiting Harry Potter world at Universal Studios. Both parks are great options for an exciting weekend getaway trip!
